Jaymi Sterling

Assistant State's Attorney
Office of the State's Attorney for Anne Arundel
County

The Daily Record proudly names Jaymi Sterling to its 2021 listing of Maryland's Top 100 Women, which was founded in 1996 to recognize outstanding achievements by women demonstrated through professional accomplishments, community leadership and mentoring.

Assistant State's Attorney Jaymi Sterling is an accomplished veteran prosecutor with the Anne Arundel County State's Attorney's Office where she prosecutes violent felony crimes and acts as a liaison to the Anne Arundel County Police Department's fatal overdose investigators. Ms. Sterling previously served as the Chief of Staff and Deputy State's Attorney for the St. Mary's County State's Attorney's Office and Special Assistant United State's Attorney with the United States Attorney's Office.

Ms. Sterling frequently testifies in front of the Maryland General Assembly advocating for stronger protections for crime victims and safer communities. She was recently awarded the "Law Enforcement Officer of the Year" for the St. Mary's County State's Attorney's Office.

Ms. Sterling was elected to serve two terms as President of the St. Mary's County Bar Association and now sits on its Board of Directors in addition to the St. Mary's County Shop with a Cop, Inc. Executive Board and the Calvert County Marine Museum Board of Governors.

Former United States Attorney for the District of Maryland Robert Hur and Maryland Governor Larry Hogan recently appointed Ms. Sterling to serve on the Governor's Asian American Hate Crimes Workgroup, a statewide body charged with developing strategies, recommendations, and actions to address the rise in violence and discrimination targeting the Asian American community.

Ms. Sterling relishes the opportunity for mentorship and participates in mentoring K-12, college and law school students. She has even managed to coach high school women's softball in her spare time. Congratulations Jaymi Sterling, The Daily Record's 2021 Maryland's Top 100 Women.
